

Notice to Users of the Town of Salem's Online Bill Payment Service(s):

The completion of a payment transaction with the Town of Salem, NH is contingent upon several factors including the following:

The authorization of payment by all entities involved in the processing of any online transaction including your applicable bank or credit card company;

payment of any related online transaction/service- related convenience fees; and the acceptance of your payment by the relevant authority or entity you are attempting to pay.

If, for any reason your online transaction payment is not processed, authorized or accepted by any entity involved, your payment liability shall remain outstanding and unpaid. As a result, you may be subject to late fees, interest charges, penalties or other actions where applicable. All outstanding payment obligations shall remain your sole responsibility. By engaging in online commerce with the Town of Salem, NH you understand, accept and agree to pay to the Town all fees and/or penalties associated with the submission of any payment transaction that is returned by any bank or other depository financial institution for insufficient funds or any other error on your part.