Volunteers Needed!

- AARP Foundation Tax-Aide New Hampshire

AARP is seeking volunteers who want to serve their community. Tax-Aide provides free tax-preparation services with a focus on serving older adults or those with low or moderate income. We help them secure much-needed tax refunds. Volunteers are trained, and classes are generally held in December or January for the upcoming tax filing season. The amount of training required depends on the position you will perform. During the 10-week February to April tax filing season, volunteers will assist taxpayers in preparing federal and state tax returns, submitting their returns electronically and request refunds (or payments) as instructed by the taxpayer. In Salem, we will staff operations at the Salem Ingram Senior Center on Tuesday's and Wednesday's and at the Centerpoint Community Church on Friday's and Saturday's. Volunteer's time commitment starts at four hours per week during tax season. AARP Foundation Tax-Aide is the largest free tax preparation service in the US with over 5,000 locations in neighborhood libraries, malls, banks community centers and senior centers. Here in New Hampshire, we have 42 locations Interested volunteers should visit www.aarpfoundation.org/taxaidevolunteer or New Hampshire Tax Help - Home (nhtaxhelp.org). You may also contact us at 603 230-4121 or email NH1@aarpfoundationtaxaide.org.

- The Intergenerational Collaborative of Salem (ICS)

ICS is a collaborative of organizations, businesses and individuals committed to helping Salem bridge the gaps between older and younger generations. We host and support events that bring senior citizens and children together for activities that promote mutual understanding and respect. If you enjoy reading aloud, playing chess, playing 45s, please consider volunteering. Days and times are flexible. Volunteers could choose between different sites including; The Learning Co-operative, St. Joseph Regional Catholic School, Birches Academy of Science and Art and Salem Boys and Girls Club. Ages of children range from preschool through grade 8. if you would like more information, please email Nancy at ics.salem.nh@gmail.com.

Fall Fest

Saturday, October 5 / 10:00 am - 2:00 pm / Hedgehog Park

The Community Services Department will be hosting a Fall Festival at Hedgehog Park. There will be Craft and Food Vendors, a Scarecrow Contest and much more. Register at salemnh.myrec.com or at the Ingram Senior Center. Craft Vendors may reserve a table for a fee of $10, online or at the Senior Center. Table rental fee will be waived for Ingram Senior Center member.
